

Collaborative Distance Learning Master's Program in Speech-Language Pathology

University of Akron & University of Cincinnati

Program of Study

Semester 1: Spring

University of Akron- Language and Literacy Development and Disorders: Infancy to Early Childhood; 3 credit hours

University of Cincinnati- Autism and Other Developmental Disabilities; 3 credit hours

TOTAL=6

Semester 2: Summer

University of Akron- Neuroscience for Communicative Disorders; 3 credit hours

University of Akron- Support Systems and Professional Issues in Speech-Language Pathology; 3 credit hours

University of Cincinnati- Language Disorders in Later Childhood; 3 credit hours

TOTAL=9

Semester 3: Fall

University of Akron- Clinical Practicum*; 3 credit hours

University of Cincinnati- Speech Sound Disorders; 3 credit hours

University of Cincinnati- Adult Neuro-language Disorders; 3 credit hours

TOTAL=9

Semester 4: Spring

University of Akron- Clinical Practicum*; 3 credit hours

University of Akron- Cognitive Communicative Issues in Speech Language Pathology; 3 credit hours

University of Cincinnati- Dysphagia; 3 credit hours

TOTAL=9

Semester 5: Summer

University of Akron- Clinical Practicum*; 3 credit hours

University of Akron-Augmentative Communication; 3 credit hours
University of Cincinnati-

*Students are required to complete a total of 5 clinical practicum experiences, however 6